MURRAY BOY AND COHN GIRL SLAIN BY THE SAME "RIPPER," INSPECTOR FAUROT ASSERTS

Lack of Clues to Murderer Baffles
Detectives at Work on the Case—
Photographs of Scene of Crime
May Help Solve Mystery.

Striking points of similarity lead the police to believe little Charlie Murray was murdered by the same man who killed Leonore Anna Cohn, affectionately known in her neighborhood as "Smart."

Charlie Murray, four years old, was attacked in the ground floor hallway of the tenement in which he lived, No. 270 First Avenue. His abdomen was ripped open with two long knife slashes. The crime was committed swiftly and in absolute silence, at the dinner hour, with tenants in their rooms on all sides. The murderer escaped without leaving the slightest clue.

Leonore Anna Cohn, 12 years old, was attacked in the second floor hallway of her house, in the tenement, at No. 352 Third Avenue, March 19. Her abdomen was slashed in precisely the same manner as that of Charlie Murray. No sound was heard by tenants. The murderer made a clean escape in both cases.

The murderer of Charles Murray is evidently the same person who killed Leonore Cohn," said Inspector Faurot when he appeared at Police Headquarters, early this afternoon, after working all night on the murder of Charlie Murray.

"The man evidently lives in the neighborhood and is an arch-fiend. I would give my right arm to get him, but he has left us absolutely no clue."

The utter recklessness displayed by the criminal of this type is shown in the fact that both crimes were committed about the dinner hour, in the open hallways of crowded tenement buildings, with a polyglot, excitable population teeming on all sides. The cleverness displayed by both murderers is evident from the manner in which they made their appearance on the scene of the crime and their escape afterward. Despite the pools of blood found beside the bodies of both little victims, and the certainty that their assailants must have carried away long-bladed, blood-stained knives, no person was found in either case who had seen the murderers depart.

MOTHERS OF THE EAST SIDE TERRORIZED BY CRIME.

When the pupils of the two large public schools in the neighborhood of the crime, on Fourteenth and Sixteenth Streets, respectively, started for home, shortly after 4 o'clock this afternoon, great throngs of mothers were gathered outside the gates waiting to see their little ones come in safely.

Another throng of women and children were gathered outside the Murphy home, where an undertaker's wagon, bearing the slain child's body, drove down from the Bellevue morgue. The screams of the child's mother, when she saw the little black casket, could be heard plainly on the street.
